

Need to Know Where to Go?

Here is a guide to follow on your visit to any of the Franklin County Clerk of Courts' downtown offices.

Our divisions are located in several buildings throughout the county government center. We hope the following will easily guide you to your destination:

Domestic Relations Division, located at 373 S. High Street, Fl. 4:

- Entering from High Street, after you pass through security, proceed up the stairs. Look for signs on gray marble columns that direct you to the elevators to floors 3-6.

Juvenile Division, located at 373 S. High Street, Fl. 4:

- Entering from High Street, after you pass through security, proceed up the stairs. Look for signs on gray marble columns that direct you to the elevators to floors 3-6.

10th District Court of Appeals, located at 373 S. High Street, Fl. 23:

- Entering from High Street, after you pass through security, proceed up the stairs. Look for signs on gray marble columns that direct you to the elevators to floors 16-26.

Juvenile Traffic, located at 399 S. Front St., Fl. 1:

- Best access at Front street entrance. If you enter from other points, you can ask a courthouse guard to direct you.

General Division CIVIL or CRIMINAL filings, located at 345 S. High Street, Fl. 1-B:

- If you enter at 345 South High Street, continue through security, turn right and cross the hallway into the General Division lobby.
- If you enter at 373 South High Street, proceed through security and follow signage for 345 South High Street
- If you first enter at 365 S. High Street, the Franklin County Government Center's Pavilion, please proceed down the steps or elevators through the tunnel for access to 345 South High Street. Follow posted signage for the Clerk of Courts General Division.

Lost? Need assistance? Ask a courthouse guard, or stop at an Information Desk in any of the Franklin County Government Center buildings for help or directions.
